Freaking awesome, I never done acid but this is what it's probably like! We need more content like this they don't all have to be games. Also I was worried the giant head was going to sneeze on me but was disappointed he didn't try to lick me!. More of my friends said 'WOW!' from this than anything else i showed them. FACT!. Not that good. Simply Dazzling!!

I just have to say WELL DONE to the development team that put this experience together! I was super-impressed with the visuals and audio. Just when you think the experience is going to stay calm and possibly get boring, it absolutely does not - it keeps you engaged and dazzled with imagery! I also really like the whole travelling thing. It really kept reminding me of Disney World's Pirates of the Carribean ride. It's so fantastic that now instead of paying an arm and a leg only to wait in line for hours at an amusement park, developers can give us even more exciting experiences right in our home VR room - WELL DONE, DEV!!!!. Neat little VR demo to show people.

I teared up the first time I watched this.. A short (and a bit weird) virtual reality opera. It's free, so give it a try.

I do feel a little warning is in order: Senza Peso might cause a little motion sickness if not used to it. Nothing too bad though.. I thought Id give this a look sence it was free, and it was was pretty cool. Check it out, its just a 6-7 min experience or check out my youtube video of the full thing here, <https://youtu.be/gMhw1VVUe1Y>
PS its WAY better in the Vive!. Not that good. definitely a good experience. Can't wait for more cinematics in VR .. :D
